HAZMAT Response

DATES: December 4th, 2015

TIME: 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM

LOCATION: 390 New York Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

COST: FREE

TARGET AUDIENCE: Municipal and County Emergency Management Staff

DESCRIPTION:

The purpose of this course is to instruct county-level and municipal emergency management personnel (and those interacting with county and municipal officials) in the concepts, practices and documentation surrounding damage assessment and reporting. It is intended to help both the elected officials, emergency management personnel and their respective direct reports in gathering and reporting accurate and timely damages impacting their communities.

It is an interesting and often interactive course which delivers the basic knowledge necessary to produce a quality, comprehensive emergency management program including Pennsylvania – specific requirements for emergency management agencies.
