FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Reaching Out for Resources Day to be Held at Evangelical Lutheran Church, Greencastle

February 10, 2016 - CHAMBERSBURG, PA –

Do you know where to turn when you have a problem or concern related to human services?
Are you aware of the many services and supports offered by Franklin County?

Franklin County Human Services is holding their next Reaching Out for Resources Day on February 25th. This community outreach session, open from 10:00 am to 3:00 pm, will provide information on the various services that are offered to Franklin County residents. To improve access to and education about these services, representatives will be at the Evangelical Lutheran Church, located at 130 N. Washington Street, in Greencastle. This session is designed to assist those seeking a solution to their current human service needs.

Later that same evening, Franklin County Human Services is also holding a Town Hall meeting from 4:30 pm to 6:00 pm. Members from each of the Franklin County Human Services Departments will be present to answer specific questions about their services, with a spotlight on "Aging Services in Franklin County." All are welcome to attend this free event.
