FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE PACE/PACENET Scam Alert

November 3, 2015 - CHAMBERSBURG, PA

The following letter has been received by several senior residents of Franklin County. The letter shows the Pennsylvania state symbol at the top, a PACE beneficiary ID number on the right, and encourages you to call a toll free number where a staff member will help you locate free benefits. If the number is called, they will request personal information, and state that they work in cooperation with the Department of Aging and PACE.

Although this letter appears to be an official document from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, it has been verified by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to be a scam. If you receive one of these letters, do not respond. If you believe that you have been a victim of this scam, please contact the United States Postal Services Inspectors at 1-800-ASK-USPS (1-800-275-8777).

Please contact the Franklin County Area Agency on Aging for further information, at 263-2153. Any concerns relating to abuse, neglect, abandonment or financial exploitation of adults 18 and older may be reported directly to the Franklin County Area Agency on Aging.
