

About

Children In Between

Children In Between is a co-parenting program for divorcing and separating parents provided by the Center for Divorce Education.

Children In Between is recognized by the National Registry of Evidence-Based Programs and Practices. The course is proven to reduce re-litigation rates and reduce parental conflict.

Research shows that two-thirds of the children from families of divorce suffer problems ranging from low self-esteem to serious depression. Some children never recover from these problems.

Children In Between is proven effective in reducing the negative impacts of divorce on children. Parents are less angry towards their ex-spouses and dramatically reduced their child's exposure to their conflicts. Parents will learn the skills needed to avoid putting children in the middle of their conflicts.

Outcomes:

- Decreased children's exposure to parental conflict
- Decreased stress children experienced
- Increased parental communication skills

Children In Between is a skills-based program that helps parents deal with their children's reactions to divorce. Reducing the stress and anxiety typically experienced by children of divorce can help to alleviate children's risk for behavior problems, depression, delinquency, substance use, teen pregnancy and school-related problems.

Attendance

- Certificates will be presented to participants at the end of the program. Certificates will not be granted to those who miss more than 15 minutes of class time for any reason.
- Parents may attend the program separately or together.
- Separate attendance is recommended when PFA's are in effect.
