~TERMINOLOGY~

Broad categories of care options and facility terms are listed in this guide. Terminology may vary from facility to facility.

Adult Day Centers – A non-residential facility that supports the health, nutritional, social support, and daily living needs of adults in professionally staffed, group setting. Adult Day Centers offer programs in facilities or function as independent organizations. The services may include but are not limited to personal care, assistance with eating or using the toilet, assistance with taking medication, and social assistance. Centers offer a protective, supervised setting and generally operate during normal business hours.

Home Care Services – May be provided in a residential setting or as ancillary services, such as in personal care and assisted living or a nursing home environment. Services include skilled nursing, therapies, as well as non-medical services such as light housekeeping, transportation and more.

Hospice Care – Hospice care is for families living and coping with life-limiting illnesses. Hospice provides professional treatment of pain and symptom management with support and counseling. It includes medical, psychological, and spiritual support.

Nursing Homes – 24-hour health related care and services provided on a regular basis to individuals who require care ordered by and provided under the direction of a physician.

PACE – PACE or the Pharmaceutical Assistance Contract for the Elderly is a state prescription assistance program administered through the Pennsylvania Department of Aging and funded through the Lottery Benefits. To be eligible for PACE you must be 65 years or older and a Pennsylvania resident at least 90 days before the date of application. You cannot be enrolled in the Department of Public Welfare’s Medicaid prescription benefit.

PACENET – PACENET is a state prescription assistance program administered through the Pennsylvania Department of Aging and funded through the Lottery Benefits. To be eligible for PACENET, you must be 65 years or older, a Pennsylvania resident at least 90 days before the date of application, you must not be enrolled in the Medicaid prescription benefit program.

Personal Care Homes – Residential facilities that offer personal care services, assistance and supervision to four or more persons. They are inspected and licensed by the Pennsylvania Department of Public Welfare. Personal Care Homes offer food, shelter, and personal assistance or supervision. They are ideal for people who do not want to forfeit independence and do not require services in or of a licensed long-term care facility but do require assistance or supervision in Activities of Daily Living (ADL).

Respite Care – Temporary institutional care of a dependent elderly, ill, or handicapped person, providing relief for their usual caregivers. Respite Care provides care giving opportunities on a short term basis. Care may range from personal to nursing care.

Taxes – Taxes are a compulsory contribution to state revenue, levied by the government of workers’ income and business profits or added to the cost of some goods, services, and transactions. Sales tax exemptions include groceries, health related items, medical services, and prescriptions.
